Dear Cathie -

I am horrified to hear that you're leaving us, it will be a real loss to everyone connected with libraries in the southeast - and to everyone who has met you. But good luck, and I hope that you'll enjoy Connecticut and will come back to see us occasionally. If all goes well, we should see you in Boston next summer?

Thanks very much for sending the list so promptly, as soon as registration is over today, I'll try to start sending notices. Now I need more information, either from you or Mary - what costs does the association pay? I suppose postage and material of that sort. What did the meeting at N.C. last year cost? I am completely green at this stuff (no pun intended) and shall appreciate any information you and/or Mary can send me.

Wish you could come to Nashville for a farewell visit with the Association -

Sincerely,

Mary
